

Clattanoia

Nate Wants To Battle

Can someone give me the answer
To my question
Where's my soul? It's like a virus in my body while I'm dreaming
When I wake up all that's left of me are bones
I'm in a panic! Get out hurry
Oh there are mysteries and many miseries Dead or alive, I'm on the brink of self-destruction
As I'm roaming from left to right to hell
An invitation to come disappear
We're dancing one, two, three steps on this dark stage
Raise your flag
March on fight
Break your mask and show some pride
While this war just sends a shiver down my crooked spine Wars and swords tears and blood
Feel my heart begin to race
As I laugh in this bloodbath we made Can someone give me the answer
To my question
Where's my soul?
Where's my heart?
Am I losing my own self Don't you hesitate
Go this way
I don't know
And I don't care
Tell me are you not entertained now?
I'll just keep surviving
I just cannot hide it all I am not to fall a victim
I'll continue living in this
Misery driven world
