

Appeals

Bayonne

I couldn't imagine how it made you feel.
Nothing is real if nothing appeals and I wouldn't stop with that look in your eyes. And now that you've left me alone -left it alone
Something I condone cause'
I didn't put on that much of a disguise. Into the Night. You couldn't imagine until it was done.
Changing the past -changing the none.
And something was said that could never define. Feelings regarding tha show that we had.
I know it was bad - I know I was mad,
And something came through that could never combine. Into the Night.
I couldn't imagine how it made you feel.
Nothing is real if nothing appeals,
and I wouldn't stop with that look in your eyes.
