

On the Inside

Daughtry

Your life is like a crack in the mirror,
Seven years of bad luck, it ain't gettin better now
And after all is said and done
Reflection in the window is the same old face
Background, small town
Everywhere you look around
Tell me what you're running from
Flip a coin and let it land in your hand,
Heads you're gonna stay, but it's tails so you can
Move to another town
Hide where you're sure you won't be found
But it's still just you on the inside
You can't pretend, it'll be alright
Said it to yourself, but you know it's just a lie
Cause it's still just you on the inside
Still you on the inside
Nothing faster than the speed of your leavin
Hundred miles an hour and there ain't no slowin down
But you can't outrun yourself
You can say you fit in like a joker in the deck, but now
You're skippin like a broken record goin round
And you're the last to ask for help
Flip a coin and let it land in your hand,
Heads you're gonna stay, but it's tails so you can
Move to another town
Hide where you're sure you won't be found
But it's still just you on the inside
You can't pretend, it'll be alright
Said it to yourself, but you know it's just a lie
Cause it's still just you on the inside
Still you on the inside
It's never really been an question of how far
At the end and every destination
There you are
Move to another town
Hide where you're sure you won't be found
But it's still just you on the inside
You can't pretend, it'll be alright
No matter how you sell it, you know it's just a lie
Cause it's still just you on the inside
Still you on the inside
(You can try to change your name, you know you'll always be the same)
Still you on the inside
(You can try to run and hide, you'll always be the same inside)
Still you on the inside
