

Windy

Page France

I believe in windy days
When everything gets blown away
Oh, please let me be blown away
I promise you I'm not afraid I will sing a circus song
About the birds and lion hearts
But please if I forget to start
Remind me who I am and what you are 'Cause when our eyes close we're the same
'Cause when our eyes close we're the same
I believe in kings and queens
And everything stuck in between
But please if you must take a peek
Don't spoil for me my mystery
