TRANSLATION:That road is right there in your heart
If you can, endure it through
Then put all of your soul into trusting itHolding you, holding you, it's in you, river flows in you
Slowly more slowly
There is a river flowing inside me
Holding you, holding you, it's in you, river flows in you
Waiting the waiting
Will I be there then?
I want to throw my heart to you
So that I can always feel you
If you can, hold onto it just a bit longer
Then try to put all your heart into itHolding you, holding you, it's in you, river flows in you
Slowly more slowly
There is a river flowing inside me
Holding you, holding you, it's in you, river flows in you
Waiting the waiting
Will I be there then?Holding you, holding you, it's in you, river flows in you
Slowly more slowly
There is a river flowing inside me
Holding you, holding you, it's in you, river flows in you
Waiting the waiting
Will I be there then?
