

Lizzie and the Rainman

Tanya Tucker

He came ridin' in on the sunrise of a hot west Texas day
A fancy man in a painted wagon with some fancy things to say
Looks like you folks need some water, well water is my game
And for the small price of $100 I betcha I can make it rain Step back non believers or the rain will never come. Someone start that fire a-burning somebody beat the drum
He said some may think I'm crazy for making all these claims
But I swear before this day is over you folks are gonna see some rain
They all just stood there astaring trying to believe
But there was one named Lizzie Cooper who said he was a lying cheat
You say you call yourself a rainman, well you oughta be ashamed
For starting all these people dreamin', thinking you can make it rain
Step back non believers or the rain will never come
Someone keep that fire a-burning somebody beat the drum
He said some may think I'm crazy for making all these claims
But I swear before this day is over you folks are going see some rain
Hey Lizzie, well a mans got to have a dream
And if you can't walk on the inside with me, I'll meet you in between Oh come with me Lizzie and the stars will write your name
And if you still think I'm lying to you, look a younder there comes the rain
So, Step back non believers or the rain will never come
Someone keep that fire a-burning somebody beat the drum
He said some folks think I'm crazy for making all these claims
But I swear before this day is over you folks are going see some rain
Repeat and fade
