

Human Love (Death On the Balcony Remix)

Dirty Vegas

You've waited for so long
To be where you are and where you're coming from
An you gave it all so much
In return for human love(musical interlude)You've waited all this time
But the sweetest thrill is the one you've yet to find
Then you're starting to believe
So long as it may seemWhen you've waited for so long
To be where you are and where you're coming from
An you gave it all so much
In return for human love
(In return for human love)
In return for human love
An all the pleasures that you'll find (you'll find)
Don't expect a thrill like the blind leading the blind (blind leading the blind)
To a world where you belong (you belong)
For a moment then it's gone gone goneWhen you've waited for so long
To be where you are and where you're coming from (yeah)
An you gave it all so much
In return for human love
(In return for human love)
In return for human love
In return for human looooveLooove
When you've waited for so long
To be where you are and where you're coming from (yeah)
Then you gave it all so much
In return for human love
(In return for human love)
In return for human loooove
(In return for human love)
In return for human loooove
