

Hazy ((Original Mix))

Tatiana Owens

OOO*

Yea Boy you know I love you
And I been there by your side
Yea we made it through some tougher times before
But now my intuition tells me something just ain't right
Wondering where you go when your walking out the door
Oh I need to know, I need to know for sure Your gonna have to help me baby
Cause things are a little hazy
Storm clouds are rolling in
It looks like Rain
Its getting hard to see the truth
In what you say, in what you do
You better start explaining
Cause its a little hazy
You said I was your only was it only for a while?
could've sworn I heard forever from your lips
But lately somethings missing cause you don't look me in the eyes and ya somewhere else every time we kiss honey I deserve so much more than this Oh Your gonna have to help me baby
Cause things are a little hazy
Storm clouds are rolling in
It looks like Rain
Its getting hard to see the truth
In what you say, in what you do
You better start explaining
Cause its a little
Here we are again
Back in that place again
Where I try (I try)
You deny (you deny)
We both pretend
But that's no way to live (no way)
I got so much more to give
We can't stay the way we are
I can't take this anymore Your gonna have to help me baby (help me)
Cause things are a little hazy (hazy)
Storm clouds are rolling in
It looks like Rain
Its getting hard to see the truth
In what you say, in what you do

You better start explaining (explaining) Oh you better start explaining You better you better start explaining
Cause its a little hazy
OOOO ohh
Its hazy
Its hazy
OOHHHHH
