

Traditions of Christmas

Mannheim Steamroller

Holy and the Ivy, Mistletoe and kisses, Grandma telling stories on this Holy Night.

Cookies in the oven baked with warmth and lovin', feelings warm and tender, singing "Silent Night"

When traditions are so special they make your heart so warm dear, they give you soft, kind feelings that make you realize that the world needs our affection
to keep the season's blessings.

Christmas has a spirit
that keeps us so alive.

Candlelight in churches, starlight on the mountains.

Smell of pine in houses, wood smoke in the air.

Teddies was and cuddly, firelight on the mantle, these are things that make it so traditional

When traditions are so special
they make your heart so warm dear,
they give you soft, kind feelings
that make you realize
that the world needs our affection
to keep the season's blessings.

Christmas has a spirit
that keeps us so alive.

... Sing silent sing
"Silent Night"
