

Something Real (Ercola Remix) [feat. Joanna]

Koobra

Didn't know what it is to not let go
Didn't know how it feels to tell your friend
Didn't know what it is to not let go
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
Didn't know how it feels to tell your friend
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
Didn't know what it is to not let go
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
Didn't know what it is to not let go
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
Didn't know how it feels to tell your friend
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
Didn't know what it is to not let go
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
Didn't know how it feels to tell your friend
Looking for something real
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
More than your eyes can see
