

Ready for Love (feat. Greg Zlap)

Klingande & Joe Killington

Swimming through the rivers of my sorrows
Praying that we'll make it out alive
Everybody's living for tomorrow
What if we were living for tonight I need you
To wear your heart on my sleeve
I need you
To lay your demons on me
I need you
To let the night set you free
You're the air that I breathe
Got me down on my knees, singing
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for love, baby?
Are you ready for love? Are you ready for love? Are you ready for love? Staring through the mirrors of our madness
Tryna find the ones we used to know
Looking for a way out of this sadness
Hoping for a light to guide us home I need you
To wear your heart on my sleeve
I need you
To lay your demons on me
I need you
To let the night set you free
You're the air that I breathe
Got me down on my knees, singing
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for love?
Are you ready for love, baby?
Are you ready for love?
Love Are you ready for love? Are you ready for love? Are you ready for love? Are you ready for love, baby?
Are you ready for love?
