

Framed

Saga

Early morning intrusion
The accusations spelt conclusions
I'd been under suspicion
Now my fate was their decision
That's why they took me away
Midnight courtroom confusion
The sentence of guaranteed seclusion
(no more Ernie Bilko)
Next day found me in isolation
Working on my rehabilitation
I've been framed
Have you no shame?
Yes, but I've been framed ... again!
I've been framed
No, you're to blame
No! I've been framed . again!
Two days later I saw the daylight
No way of knowing who to credit
(for the education)
Confused and anxious, I started walking
Next time I'll watch just who I'm talking to
I'd been framed
Had you no shame?
Yes, but I'd been framed ... again!
I'd been framed
No, you're to blame
No! I'd been framed . again!
I'd been framed
You took the blame
Yes, but I'd been framed ... again!
I'd been framed
No, you're to blame
No! I'd been framed ... again!
I'd been framed
I'd been framed, again!
I'd been framed
I'd been framed, again!
