

Grace

Tenth Avenue North

Oh, can you hear
Hear mercy sing
She cries to bitter hearts
And your suffering
Oh, please let go
Give up your fight
Holding back your love
Will never make things right, noIt's gonna be okay
Okay, tonightGrace, only grace
Can roll your dead heart's stone away
Grace, only grace
Can move us to a rhythm that will change our ways
Oh, listen to love
Let pride hit the ground
When joy is the armor
It can't be broken down
If hate is the fuel
No one will win
When we love til we're on empty
That's where life beginsGrace, only grace
Can roll your dead heart's stone away
Grace, only grace
Can move us to a rhythm that will change our waysGrace, grace
Come and move me
Oh come and move me now
Grace, recreate me
Oh, from the inside out
Grace, only grace
Can roll your dead heart's stone away
Grace, only grace
Can move us to a rhythm that will change our ways
Grace, only grace
Can roll your dead heart's stone away
Grace, only grace
Can move us to a rhythm that will change our ways
