

Obey the Fallen

Act of Defiance

There's no resolve - revenge for blood
Bravery becomes your disguise for war
Freedom is forced - what is it worth?
Wear the scars with pride, disregard the hurt
Into the fold - been through the worst
Society just throws you away like dirt
The banner is torn - this land is not yours
They've come to take everything you are
Struck by aggression, you're not real
Just an illusion - exit here
Obey the fallen, fight and kill
Your execution - line starts here
Do what you're told - torn from your home
Withstand all the suffering that you've caused
Have no remorse - feel nothing more
Hide your pain, prepare for the final course
Waiting your turn - no matter the cost
You give your life, admit to yourself you've lost
Watch the fields burn - forget who you are
Reveal all your hopes and dreams are gone
Struck by aggression, you're not real
Just an illusion - exit here
Obey the fallen, fight and kill
Your execution - line starts here
-Guitar Solo-
Is this retaliation? Another soldier is scorned
Bow your head, ask forgiveness
The inevitable - your exit here
Fail to follow - heart so hollow - heartless
Fail to follow - heart so hollow - exit here
-Guitar Solo-
Fail to follow - heart so hollow
Exit here
They take control - bound by the law
Traded in your family for a gun
Damage is done - hell here on earth
Sworn to die with honor, hero to all
Struck by aggression, you're not real
Just an illusion - exit here
Obey the fallen, fight and kill
Your execution - line starts here
Fail to follow - heart so hollow
Exit...
Fail to follow - heart so hollow
You will exit here...
