

Mountain Man

Crash Kings

I'm sittin' on top of a mountain.
She's rockin' that valley down below.
Switch back to the beat with the blindfold,
bummin' down at the top of my lungs
screaming no.
Straight out on a headwall,
turned into a free fall.I'm sipping on some sunshine.
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the afterlife,
and she's drunk by the day time.
I bet she feels it just the same not anymore
I'm sittin' on top of a hillside.
There's a one-way path that's takin' me home.
Coming up with the beat with the blindfold,
bummin' down at the top of my lungs
screaming no.
Straight out on a headwall,
turned into a free fall.I'm sippin' on some sunshine.
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the afterlife,
and she's drunk by the day time.
I bet she feels just the same in the evening.I'm sippin' on some sunshine.
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the afterlife,
and she's drunk by the day time.
I bet she feels it just the same not anymore
I'm sippin' on some sunshine.
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the afterlife,
and they're drunk by the day time.
I bet they feel it just the same.
I bet they feel it just the same.I'm sippin' on some sunshine.
I'm gonna leave it for the morning in the afterlife,
and she's drunk by the day time.
I bet you feel it just the same.
I bet you feel it just the same.
