Look at me
You think that I'm tryin' to fight ya
But I'll always be on your side, yeah
Oh-woah-yeah You know me
Why you're always on défense then?
Making me feel like your friends did Oh-woah-yeah How many times do I have to convince you that I'll always be on your team You're run oin your mouth and you're talking about me but things don't always look what they seem So whenever you're losing
I celebrate ya
Appreciate ya
I'll get you up on your feet
Whenever you're winning
I'll give you strength, boy
Now shitare your name, girl
Cause I'll always be on your, I'll always be on your team
Ya, I'll always be on your team Look at me, baby you know that I'm no angel
I know I'm whole lot to handle
Oh-woah-yeah But you know me
