

Dirty Great Monster

Duran Duran

There's a Dirty Great Monster in this house
we pretend that it's not there and there's no escape from it's it's grip but nobody seems to care Do you ever wonder?
about the days when we were straightbut daddy got the hunger so much to hide we learned to lieSo watch yourself in the hallway you're not supposed to knowcause we're all afraid of each other we're the victims in this show Well do you ever wonder about the days
when we were straight?
when daddy got the hunger too much to hide, we learned to lie silently outnumbered we made mistakes, when we were straight now we're all going under so with a sigh
we say goodbye
