

Born Again

Tiffany Young

[Verse 1]

Coming in this world fully naked
Feeling brand new so I'm your baby
Never felt this safe, in a foreign place
I used to feel so hollow, shallow, vacant
When you're around your clothes and all these faces
All the things we made
Finally erased[Pre-Chorus]
So bad it should be forbidden
So good, so deep, I feel it[Chorus]
Your love is like a higher power
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again
Cause every time you love me harder
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again

[Verse 2]

Your love is for the dead and I want danger
Feeling so alive because I crave ya'
Passion, pleasure, pain
It all feels the same
Hotter than the sun, who needs saving?
Got me on my knees so come and pray with me
Flooding like a rain
Feel like forty days[Pre-Chorus]
So bad it should be forbidden
So good, so deep, I feel it
I'm reborn[Chorus]
Your love is like a higher power
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again
'Cause every time you love me harder
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again
I'm born again, again
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again
I'm born again, again[Bridge]
Never, never leave
I finally believe
Cause I call you my baby[Chorus]
Your love is like a higher power
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again
'Cause every time you love me harder
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again, again[Outro]
Every time, every time that I call I feel awakened

When you dive in the tides of the ocean I feel heaven
It's like the first time, first time when you loved me naked
I'm born, I'm born, I'm born again again
