

Starlight (feat. Myles Kennedy) [iTunes Session]

Slash

In the distance, light years from tomorrow far beyond yesterday she is watching heart aching with sorrow she is broken as she waits hoping when all is said and done we learn to love and be as one Oh Starlight
don't you cry we're gonna make it right before tomorrow
Oh Starlight
don't you cry we're gonna find a place where we belong
and so you know you'll never shine alone There are shadows sleepin' on the horizon that leave us scared and so afraid of the fallout of a world divided that brings us tears and so much pain so we take cover from the dark hoping to find where we can start Oh Starlight
Oh Starlight
Starlight we'll find a place where we belong
where we belong
You will see as mountains crumble and turn to dust there is one thing that one change cause I believe there is something within each of us that always stays and will always remain as long as love never fails
Oh Starlight

Oh Starlight
She is watching heartaching with sorrow she is broken
as she waits
