

While I'm Still Here

Nine Inch Nails

Only thing I've ever done
Ticking time is running out
Closest I've ever come
Ticking time is running out
Oh so tired on my own
Ticking time is running out
Best days I've ever known
Ticking time is running out
Yesterday I found out the world was ending
Yesterday I found out the world was ending
A little more
Every day
Falls apart and
Slips away well
I don't mind
I'm okay
Wish it didn't
Have to end this way
These four walls are closing in
Ticking time is running out
Oh all the things that might have been
Ticking time is running out
Watching others walking by
Ticking time is running out
God forgive me if I cry
Ticking time is running out
A little more
Every day
Falls apart and
Slips away
I don't mind
I'm okay
Nothing ever
Stays the same well
While we can Remember when
Always running
Even then
Stay with me
Hold me near
