

She's Expensive

The Virgins

Don't let a good night's fun
Come to an early end
Let's have a cocaine brunch
I really shouldn't stay and she kicks her heels off
It takes a lot to change her mind
I can't stop myself from chasing She's expensive, she's expensive
I can't stop myself from chasing She's going out again
She's fascinating men
Her eyes are pale and grey
She pushes him away
I can't stay here no more
It takes a lot to change her mind
She's expensive, she's expensive
She's expensive, she's expensive
I can't stop myself from chasing What makes the girls on the street sing?
Oh, for what its worth to see you moan
Oh, for what its worth to see you moan What makes the girls on the street sing?
Oh, for what its worth to see you moan
Oh, for what its worth to see you moan
She's expensive, she's expensive
I can't stop myself from chasing
I can't stop myself from chasing
I can't stop myself from chasing
