

Hunt Hunt Hunt

There for Tomorrow

No need to explain, cuz I know your story
You're making your claims to have the guts and glory
You're sad, sad, sadly mistaken Your steady mistakes give me a burning rush
We burn at the stake while you keep pressing your luck
You're sad, sad, sadly mistaken So let me make you familiar,
You say you're going up, I beg to differ
I think you're going straight on down, down, down
And your halo caught fire I'm on a hunt, hunt for your chemicals
I got the lust, lust for the criminal in you
Trust, trust me, cuz I'll be honest
You think you got it all, but I think you lost it
You're a fake or a fraud, a bad one, naturally
We move at the sound of every single footstep
You're laying it down as you sing yourself away
Your sad little songs tonight So let me make you familiar
You say you're going up, I beg to differ
And now you're going down, down, down
And your halo caught fire I'm on a hunt, hunt for your chemicals
I got the lust, lust for the criminal in you
Trust, trust me, cuz I'll be honest
You think you got it all, but I think you lost it
You're a fake or a fraud, a bad one, naturally
Naturally
Hey! Save what you're sayin'
And who you've been
Cuz I'm about to make you tame
I'm on a hunt, hunt for your chemicals
I got the lust, lust for the criminal in you
Trust, trust me, cuz I'll be honest
You think you got it all, but I think you lost it
You're a fake or a fraud, a bad one, naturally
You're a fake or a fraud, a bad one, naturally
