

Mr. Sun

Sammy Johnson

1:

I wish these drops would stop pitter pattering on the floor
cause I just can't stay at home anymore.
It's been raining oh For the longest time and I wish I get some of your sunshine.Mr.Sun where are you?
I hope you haven't caught the flu
cause I was hoping that you grace
me with your smile
oh with your smile. X2

2:

Nowadays life's full of possibilities.
That we bargain life's simple pleasures with like a call from your friend saying "Hey, how you been"
or a kiss from your girlfriend.
You can hear it in the wind as it blows through the trees
Like a simple message for your A B C's
And you know every journey starts with a single step
so take my hand and here we go.
Mr.Sun where are you?
I hope you haven't caught the flu.
cause I was hoping that you grace
me with your smile
oh with your smile.
Mr.Sun yeah
