

Small Price to Pay

Drew Fish Band

Empty Cooler, let's go n' fill it up
Come on girl, won't you hop up in my truck and we'll head on down to that river bank
The same place where I met you babe
I'll grab the drinks and girl you know I've got your tab
Thirty dollars in my pocket and that's every dime I haveChorus:
Ten dollars for a box a wine
Cold case of beer twelve ninety nine
Drinkin' down by the creek on a long hot summer day
Cheap whiskey baby, let's take a shot
The best memories don't cost a lot
Some people just might say that's a small price to pay
The waters warm, grab your koozie jump on in Doin' back flips off the willow tree, you know we're just living
It's days like these, wish they'd never end
String bikinis in that summer sun, radio playin' my jams Here's to us girl don't you ever hold back
Every moment that I spend with you, I want to make it lastChorus Stars come out about nine
We got a few more drops of white wine
Let's settle down, there's no place I'd rather be Lying next to her, staring at the moon, I'd do anything for a day with you
And that's a small price to payChorus
Chorus
