

To the Lions

Lloyd Cole

I lost my girl on Monday
Lookin' for some sympathies
I went to church directly
The Lord was not there for me Didn't go to work on Tuesday
Got to drinkin' around noon
I lost my heart to a mean bartender
She knocked me off my stool Now the world's spinnin' round too fast
Lord won't you let me off on the corner
You know a man could take to sinnin'
All he needs is a little push in that direction
I lost my job on Friday
They said "Lack of discipline"
I went to church directly
Peter said "He was not in" I hit the bar on Sunday
Lookin' for some discipline
I sold my soul to the mean bartender
She said "I'm born again"
Now the world's spinnin' round too fast
Lord won't you let me off on the corner
You know a man could take to sinnin'
All he needs is a little pushin'
You time it just right
You could send me to the lions tonight
