

Bonjour

Nas

[Verse 1]

I should be more mature, sure, I'm spoiled
Hit up the south of France after tour, bonjour (bonjour)
How many girls pre-bate right before they date
So she can have restraint? She still get slayed (bonjour)
That's ill behavior, want the whip matted
Want her ass the fattest, beat it: Thriller jacket
A street metaphor if your dog piss on the floor
Put his nose in it, check these niggas from the door [Chorus]
Plenty of kisses, plenty of babes too
The day [...]
Bonjour

[Verse 2]

Eat at selective kitchens
Speak on our next intentions
Over-creamy Polenta, it come chef recommended (bonjour)
Come through the side entrance; I arrive, bitches
Crackheads still owe me from '89 fixes (bonjour)
Havin' drinks in Vegas, my business
She didn't see me comin', now she's an eyewitness
Laissez le bon temps rouler
Say ahh so the kids could play [Chorus]
Plenty of kisses, plenty of [...]
Bonjour

[Verse 3]

Vacay share twisted
Whatever happened missed it
Vacations I didn't like, put myself through a guilt trip (bonjour)
All these beautiful places, but the cities be poor
You wealthy when your kid's upbringing better than yours
(Bonjour) All this money we gettin'
Could be gone in a minute if we don't invest it
We long-term affected
Watch who you gettin' pregnant
That's long-term stressin'
I got a mil for every bump on your face
That's what I call a blessin', flexin' [Chorus]
My head looks straight up and I'm wondering, what did I do?
Bonjour
She looked at me like damn, did I surprise you?
Sure enough, as the sky's blue

She turned back around and walked right down the avenue
    Bonjour
She's waiting for the right cue
    Bonjour
I'm waiting for the right clue
    Bonjour
She be leaving, still I smell her eau de parfum
She can't run 'cause I got Cinderella's right shoe
And, that right girl, but I be seeing right through Without obscuring my view
    There's nothing left to argue
    Bonjour
At least there's not from my view
    Bonjour
