

Bridge to Hawaii

Tacocat

You are a crazy little bard of crazy land
Who in yourself, at worst, guided by the crazy aunt
The town is freaked around, you need some higher ground
And when you can't go up, you know what your options are
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
It's dark and it rains all the time
I'm guessing not the destinations that you had in mine
Your brain's unraveling, the endless traveling
And you can't go up, jump into the ocean
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
You are a crazy little bard of crazy land
Who in yourself, at worst, guided by the crazy aunt
The town is freaked around, you need some higher ground
And when you can't go up, you know what your options are
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
Let's build a bridge to Hawaii
