

elevator girl (feat. Ivy Sole)

Shura

Uh-huhBaby, I can help you out (you've got somethin', and)
Maybe if it all works out (we got somethin' so sweet)
Twenty-two fights of silence (oh-oh) before I let you in (before I let you in)Twenty-two fights of silence (silence)
Elevate your skin
It's just like a film, someone made
Based on a book that I read
So sweet, so strange
Uh-huh
Uh-huh, uh-huh
I've got a girl in my room
She elevates my world
She elevates my world (my world, my world)
Twenty-two floors up
I'm high, it's like a drug
She's my elevator girlUnderwater, fallin' for you (feels just like)
Flyin' through the sky like angels (ecstasy)Twenty-two fights of silence (ah-ah, ah-ah, ah)
Twenty-two fights of silence (silence, silence, silence)
I've got a girl in my roomShe elevates my world (she elevates my world)
She elevates my world (my world, my world)
(She elevates my world)
Twenty-two floors up
I'm high, it's like a drug
She's my elevator girl
I buried one gin and tonic too many
Or maybe you just had plenty
Of reason to tempt me, askin' if I'd dip to swim your current
Is it me or did the tide shift?
Drownin' in your eye's grip
Room key in my palm, anxiety make my mind trip
Twenty second floor, second room on the left
Now I'm past your door, you lay in wait of caress
All we needed was a swing of the hips
Some wings, and some lips
Couple touches of a button, won't you gimme a lift, baby?She elevates my world (she elevates my world)
She elevates my world (my world, my world)
(She elevates my world)
Twenty-two floors up
I'm high, it's like a drug (high, it's like a drug, yeah)
She's my elevator girlI got a girl in my room
