

Betty's a Bombshell

Grouplove

Bettys a bombshell she just got paid
Crossing the street on passionate gates
Billys a looker he's from upstate
He ran into Betty and he took her on a date
And it's a sunny day, we were goin, on a holiday
And it's okay
All the suffering obliterates at speed
But don't you wait (don't you wait)the faster you let go will receive what you need
Ohh ohh ohh
And Betty said Billy why you makin that face
Since you moved in you've been on a different page
You've been out of commition hiding in the kitchen
And Freddy came over and you couldn't even listen
Its a great escape from your heartache its your replay
And it's okay
All the suffering obliterates at speedBut don't you wait (don't you wait)
the faster you let go you will recive what you need
And it's okay
All the suffering obliterates at speed
But don't you wait (don't you wait)
the faster you let go you will receive what you need
It's a sunny day, we were goin, on a holiday
It's a sunny day, we were goin, on a holiday
It's a holiday, holiday.
