

Pandora

Hurt

Oh, he loved to hear her moan
And when he'd come around he'd hope that she's alone cause the window makes a soundIt's alright she says
Come inside she says
Come insideWell that snow-coloured skin beneath the moonlight
Was a vision of a better time
When you and I had different lives
Is something the matter?
No, she bowed into the finish line
Saying you will learn in due time
She shook and moaned and spread her thighsOh it's alright she said
Come inside she said
Come inside
This is...
How hope is gone
This is...
How hope was lost
Now hope is goneWell you know, that thing before that bothered me
The man who holds me rightfully has quite a hefty policy
Well accidents happen
So, with an implication in the air
I turned and bolted out of there
She followed and made me aware
I'll get what I want
If you don't, I'll tell you how my story goes
You broke into the window
With me in just like any clothes
You made me undress, then...
You came inside she said
Get back inside she said
Get back insideSo this is...
How hope is gone
Now I know...
I know
How hope was lost
