

Sweet Jane

Garrett Kato

Oh sweet Jane
Living in the rapture
All the feelings after were gonna fade away
Smokey days hanging outside in the pouring rain
Feelin like the home where you once stayed has washed away
Oh your hearts been acting like
It' don't wanna be working right
Now you tried everything just to feel something
Oh my thoughts are still with you
But you said that I'll explain to you
When you got nothing left, you got nothing left to loose
Your father said that someday he will be re made into a spirt that lives inside your mind
So you denied
The reasons we all live and die
Said that the river runs straight into ocean
Oh your hearts been acting like
It' don't wanna be working right
Now you tired everything just to feel something
Oh my thoughts are still with you
But you said that I'll explain to you
