

Time Will Tell

Blood Orange

Time will tell if you can figure this and work it out no one's waiting for you anyway so don't be stressed now even if it's something that you've had your eye on, it is what it is. And it keeps on running back Finishing 8 or 9 tell me what's the perfect time, told you i'll be waiting hiding from the rainfall, come into my bedroom

Time will tell if you can figure this and work it out
no one's waiting for you anyway so don't be stressed now
even if it's something that you've had your eye on, it is what it is. And it keeps on running back Even if it's all you know just keep your heart in, anyway to keep it up just never let yourself down, even if it's something that you've had your eye on, it is what it is. And it keeps on running back Finishing 8 or 9 tell me what's the perfect time, told you i'll be waiting hiding from the rainfall, come into my bedroom I've kept it open, and wanted nobody to be my friend, i've wasted moments in the bowery light, and lost it all. Come into my bedroom.

It's enough to say, you're getting older every day you ought to love someone You break down and you pray hoping something comes your way, you ought to love someone

Lyrics provided by <https://www.omusic.in/>