

Gemini

Ought

I retain the right to be disgusted by life
I retain the right to be in love with everything in sight
And when the cold, cold breeze
Picks you up and takes you high above the trees
And when your eyes roll back into your skeleton
It's not that I can see but now I feel
And in the long, long night
I said, "I don't think that I will ever sleep again"
Cause I've found that I've waited half of my life
[?] your eyes, once you see the light
And in the long, long night
I said, "I think that I have finally lost my mind"
And you say, "keep in mind," you say, "keep in mind!"
You say, "keep in mind," you say, "keep in mind!"
x2

God, Jesus Christ, and tell me I'm alright
Is it you?! You?!
And you're one of a kind, one of a kind!
You! You! I retain the right to have an end in sight
I retain the right to be absolutely mystified
And when the cold, cold rain
Makes you think that you'll never be so clean
When your car isn't there
And you're moving, you're weightless, you're more than a friend
And in the long, long night
Keep on saying, "there's still a place in time"
One of a kind! One of a kind!x2
Are you in jail tonight?
Are you the stars that align?
Are you my friend tonight?
Oh

A change, I want it Well see, now I know, there's something in your mind And you're one of a kind, one of a kindx2Wanted a calm and a [?]
Wanted to shout it! Wanted to shout it!
Wanted a calm and a [?]
Wanted to shout it! Wanted to shout it!
Wanted, wanted, wanted, wanted! Wanted!
