Bobby Tinsley

The sun doesn't shine without you...I wake up in the mornin with tears in my eyes,
The kind that you cry but you don't know why.
Everything that I know that I need in my life,
Is only in you, but my pride gets in the way,
and i make mistakes, and everytime i do, i know that your heart breaks, i'm gone but i can't seem to figure out a way to make things right Exciting me, something inside of me seems to be calling me
(calling me back to you now)
This voice i hear keeps trying to draw me near,
Telling me I don't have to fear, If I, If I would only look around and see...My sun doesnt shine without you,
Every morning that I wake up you make my sky blue,
I'm addicted to the love that only flows from you.
I can't seem to ever deny, and i dont wanna try,
Cuz i realise just how much i'm addicted
I stepped outta the shower, grab my towel and dry,
Inside of me's dirty but, my outside's fly,
It's funny how reflections never show who you are inside but, I,
Step into my car and turn the radio loud, doing everything tryna tune you out,
Riding down the freeway trying to figure out what life's about.
Exciting me, something inside of me seems to be calling me
(calling me back to you now)
This voice i hear keeps trying to draw me near,
Telling me I don't have to fear, If I, If I would only look around and see...My sun doesnt shine
without you,
Every morning that I wake up you make my sky blue,
I'm addicted to the love that only flows from you.
I can't seem to ever deny, and i dont wanna try,
Cuz i realise just how much i'm addicted
The way that you walk with me, and the way that you talk with me,
And the way that you accept me, really soothes my soul,
The way that you touch my life, Every day and every night,
The way you gave a blind man sight I was failing I know Yo, I'm addicted to your love, everything you do,
From the moment I wake up, to the moment my days through,
From the second my day opens, i pray and i stay hopin,
That i can keep my faith flowin', holdin firmly and true,
But dealing with hurts in the past, I no longer can grasp,
I feel like my hearts broken, slung in a cast,
Signed with a name, all the ways that I've caused shame,
To the one that controls the rain and promise to never change on me,She like my frame, she shifted to fixate on me,

She strictly like an addiction to cocaine,
Description fiend, cuz you can inflict the pain of a flame,
I'll be insane, cuz you swim through my veins,
Couldn't control me if you save my health,
Was depicted to be addicted to addiction itself,
'Til i heard it was word, that im flated with this urge, Infatuated? I'm the one that created this word...My sun doesn't shine without you,
Every morning that I wake up you make my sky blue,
I'm addicted to a love that only flows from you,
I can't seem to ever deny,
And I don't want to try coz I realize just how much I'm addicted ooooh yeah...
