

Treasure

Sampha

Treasure

I was somewhere two thousand a daydream

I was hiding, I couldn't face it

I used to live my life in this

I fell out of sync, audio phasing

Felt like I couldn't find my placing

Sky shivers there

They turn to rain

I turn again

I wish we could heal

I'll take you home

I'll make you whole

You made me wish

That this wasn't real

Because you're

You're my treasure

Because you're

You're my treasure

I used to live my life in the wind

And I would fly wherever you would swim

I couldn't stand by you or anything

Sky shivers there

They turn to rain

I turn again

I wish we could heal

I'll take you home

I'll make you whole

You made me wish

That this wasn't real

Because you're

You're my treasure

Because you're

You're my treasure

Bad habits and good times

Let's take a risk, no nine lives

Don't smile, you just might cry

Been round the round-a-bout, like five times

Will be two scratches, hard drive

Local advertise, decline

Watch the heavens just recline

Watch the heavens, let's the sun die

Breathing even is a challenge

Cause I don't want to lose, brother

I need it, gotta have it

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

Too stuck in the loop

So alone

Treasure
