

Up to You

Josh Auer

Look around hear the sound of the silence
Feel the beat of your heart when its breaking down
See the town with the church bells ringing
All alone with the sun now beating down Take it in or leave it behind
Its up to you Run away
Run away if you need to
Run away
Its up to you
Run away
Run away if you need to
Hide away
Its up to you
Walk around hear the people laughing
When theyre up sure theyre up
But they must come down
See the world thru the eyes of the broken
And feel the pain of their words as you hit the ground Take it in or leave it behind
Its up to you
Up to you Run away
Run away if you need to
Run away
Its up to you
Run away
Run away if you need to
Hide away
Its up to you
Oh where did you go
You left in a hurry on your own
Well its too late to reason
Its too late to make sense of it all Run away
Run away if you need to
Run away
Its up to you
Run away
Run away if you need to
Hide away
Its up to you
Its up to you
Its up to you Look around hear the sound of the silence
Feel the beat of your heart with youre breaking down
