All The Luck In The World

Inside your head, we go exploring
And your eyes have seen, better days
Once green, now grey. Go on, you'll find Me close behind
And I know that you're near
Just because I'm here All you have to do in life is die
Everything else is a choice
And all we've got to do tonight is try
To think over all the noise
And I know I will never understand
But I wish you'd come back and ask for my hand, Cause I'd cut both them off to see your face And convince you that it's all such a waste
It's all such a waste Trees throw their leaves to the ground
And some people leave without sound to the man with a plan to take all he can Remember trees throw their leaves to the ground Trees throw their leaves to the ground
And some people leave without sound
To the young little boy who lost all his toys
At least you're no leaf for now
At least you're no leaf for now
At least you're no leaf for now
