

Headlights

Cat Power & Steve Shelley

Last thing I remember
Last thing I remember
Last thing I remember
Somebody was laughing in my ear
Last thing I remember
The sun was coming up
Last thing i remember
Last thing i remember
Hey the headlights are getting to
Close to me
Hey the headlights are cutting me
I can see
Somewhere above me
I can see
My friend weeping
My friend singing over me
Lifting her arms up to the sky
Lifting her arms up to the sky
Somewhere above me
I can hear
Like birds singing
Or are they weeping
Get up around eight X4
Let's make some coffee
And get real stoned
Hey let's play a record or two
A record or two X3
Hey the headlights are getting too
Close to me
Hey the headlights are cutting me
And I can see i'm alone
It's cold as hell X5
