

Dragonfly (Unplugged Radio Edit)

Shaman's Harvest

Maybe the sky's falling down around the babies
Maybe the world is gonna spin out of control
I don't care anymore.
What if I quit today workin' for the man
And said I've had enough, well maybe I can
It's all gonna end anyway.
Tell me doctor, whats the cure for the wicked man's blues? Fly Dragonfly
Fly Dragonfly
Fly Dragonfly
When the sky, falls to the sea
I won't mind
The cause in me
When the wind blows through the trees I won't cry for dragonfly.
Fly Dragonfly Fly Dragonfly.
When I come
Get me a piece
Take my advice Just let me be.
When the moon
turns black as night We'll bathe in the fires
Of Dragonfly.
Fly Dragonfly.
Don't take so long
I'll be there before you know
I See you in my minds' eye.
Fly dragonfly
Fly Dragonfly
Fly Dragonfly
Fly, Dragonfly.
