

the light is coming (feat. Nicki Minaj)

Ariana Grande

[Intro]

You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead[Verse 1: Nicki Minaj]

Ay yo

Trophy wife, aw, you want me
Until you had to find out, it's on me
Now you benched, aw you're bum knee
Now I'm the bad guy, call me Chun-Li (ooh)
'Cause you was slippin', yeah you clumsy
And everything I peep, can't just unsee
Sips tea, and it is unsweet
Respect bad gal, when mi done speak?
Now we shooting the shot like drive-by
Why you had to make me go call up my side guy?
Can't let a f-boy f- up my nice vibe
Yo Ariana, come let me give you a high five

[Chorus: Ariana Grande]

The light is coming to give back everything the darkness stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
The light is coming to give back everything the darkness stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
The light is coming to give back everything the darkness stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
The light is coming to give back everything the darkness stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this Instead[Verse 2: Ariana Grande]

What does she say? What did he say?

You don't listen 'cause you know everything

You don't even need dreams

Tellin' everybody "Stay woke don't sleep"

Ah, 'bout to break that shit down

You don't wait until they wait another round

Ah, guess you're way above it now

And then she wait another night

I've been into you, shit that you've been through

Damn, I'm so confused, who cares about the rush of it

In an interview

That's the bottom line, know-it-all (know-it-all)

Given you a box of chances every time you blow it all (blow it all)

'Cause if it was shade, he would just throw it all (throw it all)

It's like you're trying not to blow it all (blow it all)

Know-it-all (know-it-all)

[Chorus: Ariana Grande]

The light is coming to give back everything the darkness st-st-stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
The light is coming to give back everything the darkness stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
The light is coming to give back everything the darkness st-st-stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this and instead
The light is coming to give back everything the darkness stole
You wouldn't let anybody speak for this-
