

Somebody New (feat. Tiffani Juno)

Jakwob

Now I don't know if you hear me when I talk
I know it fears me when you walk away
I miss it every day
We never get to play no more Listen if you want to, sit down if you want to
I'll give you the run-through, don't like it? You can walk away
I won't chase you like I used to
Boy I just think times have changed, I'll just wait for somebody new And when the clock strikes
one, this mess will be undone
And when the clock strikes two, don't think that kiss will do
And if you missed out four, there's love still on the floor
Boy I just think times have changed, I'll just wait for somebody new Boy I just think times have changed, I'll just wait for somebody new I'll just wait for somebody new, I'll just wait for somebody new
I'll just wait for somebody new, I'll just wait for somebody new I'll just wait for somebody new But I'm not sure if it's you that I desire
I get this craving every hour I wait
I pray it goes away
I'm getting more than hunger pains Listen if you want to, sit down if you want to
I'll give you the run-through, don't like it? You can walk away
I won't chase you like I used to
Boy I just think times have changed, I'll just wait for somebody new And when the clock strikes
one, this mess will be undone
And when the clock strikes two, don't think that kiss will do
And if you missed out four, there's love still on the floor
Boy I just think times have changed, I'll just wait for somebody new I'll just wait for somebody new
And when the clock strikes two, and when the clock strikes four, oh And when the clock strikes
one, this mess will be undone
And when the clock strikes two, don't think that kiss will do
And if you missed out four, there's love still on the floor
Boy I just think times have changed, I'll just wait for somebody new
