

Nostrum

Meshuggah

Jealous vengeful fabrication
Halo-crowned invention
Sacred universal lie
Artificial, divineGreat archaic obseletum
A prevarication, deceitfully contrivedSynthesized, fictitious
Dreamed up by remote prototypes
Opiate for the yearning mass
Administered, applied
Three letter word for monsterEmpty promises of healing
Profit aptly buried in the lies
An industry rapt with avarice
Medicatiing blind it's acolytesUseless panacea
Imaginary cure-all
To you we cry and supplicate
Into your hell we fall
Blind belief in their eyes
Forever atoning
Credulously waiting
Gazing to the skies
