

Violet Hill

Coldplay

Was a long and dark December
From the rooftops I remember
    There was snow
    White snow
    Clearly I remember
From the windows they were watching
    While we froze down below
When the future's architected
By a carnival of idiots on show
    You'd better lie low
    If you love me
    Won't you let me know?
Was a long and dark December
When the banks became cathedrals
    And a fox became God
    Priests clutched onto bibles
    Hollowed out to fit their rifles
    And the cross was held aloft
    Bury me in armor
When I'm dead and hit the ground
My nerves are poles that unfroze
    If you love me
    Won't you let me know?
I don't want to be a soldier
Who the captain of some sinking ship
    Would stow, far below
    So if you love me
    Why'd you let me go?
I took my love down to violet hill
    Then we sat in snow
All that time she was silent still
    So if you love me
    Won't you let me know?
    If you love me
    Won't you let me know?
