

Bridges (feat. Chronixx)

Shaggy

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
Climbing up the ladder you better watch your steps (Watch how you a flex and watch the moves you make)
Careful of the people you disrespect
(Dem with rosicrucian man nah take no check)
'Cause when you coming down they might not wanna treat you right
And when you coming down that's when you gonna get the fight
And now you're wishing that you were a little more polite
And now the table has turned and everything has come to light
I bet you wish you never burned
that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
I bet you wish you never burned that bridge
(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)
It's no coincident the people you meet
You haffi careful how you move in the street
The same man you pass going up when you're coming down,
Him might laugh and a grin him teeth
Grandma say today for you, tomorrow for me
That's when you have to face your real sorrows for real!
I know you're wishing you never burn your bridges
But who can I hear haffi feel
A can't believe you burn it, you burn it, the way you a go walk
When you have to cross the river in a dark
You burn it, you burn all your bridges in the pass
Now your future lead you to the same path, ease - - on!
