

Honestly?

American Football

Honestly I can't remember those teen dreams,
All my teenage feelings and their meanings.
They seem too see-through to be true.
All the who's are there,
But the why's (but the why's) Why's, are unclear (are unclear)
Picture this:
A long-awaited sickening kiss. So how does it feel (explain)
To know how you've rewritten history (these things change)
Despite the complicated beginnings to all this
Honestly
