

Vendetta (feat. J Cole)

Elijah Blake

On that Henny
My tour bus got plenty
I surplus so many
Wanna' serve us so many, Cole
On that Henny
My tour bus got plenty
I surplus so many
Wanna' serve us so many, goBabe, now I do some things I ain't so proud of, wait
Need to get this off my chest so can you stay
But you want me to beg
That ain't playing fair
I won't, won't do that Shall we say, I'm still young but grown enough to make mistakes
You're the only one I left in me and my place If you want an excuse, that's one thing I don't do, no babe
Love you baby, more than my own life What else can I say if you're not satisfied
You be asking me about where I be Wondering who I see, ain't you here with me
Baby, don't you trip, cause I lost that shit
Fuck them other chicks, but I know you ain't convinced
I tell ya'
Hey, I'm still young but grown enough to make mistakes
You're the only one I left in me and my place
If you want me excused, that's one thing I don't do, now baby
Love you baby, more than my own life
What else can I say if you're not satisfied
Yeah, got a vendetta even though I been better
She be out of pocket when her friends wit' her
Disturbing the peace, curse words in the street
Man, shoulda' let the muhfucking Benz hit her
But I chilled though
And peeled off, real slow
Straight face, so she'll know
But damn that thing feels so good, make a nigga do the heel-toe
That's high school shit, baby this a different world
A world where women don't last long
Got so many hoes that I passed on Leave her heartbroken with a cast on Learning all the words to the sad songs
I know it seems that my past wrong
And so it seems that I'm past gone
Like one false move and yo ass gone
But you a lil' mo' purty, lil' mo' thick
Lil' mo' smarter, lil' mo' quick

Lil' mo sweeter, lil' mo' slick
Superwoman like Lil' Mo hit
So stop thinking that I'm still gon' dip
I know it might seem weird to you
That sometimes our dreams come true
But sometimes our fears do too
Love you baby, more than my own life
What else can I say if you're not satisfied
