

Pride

Shaman

Somedays I wish to run away
Fall in the world and stray,
My life is turning, turning But when there's nowhere else to go
Pray to the Lord, my soul,
My heart is burning, burning You betray yourself
When you think that you're someone else Someday I'll understand my dreams so deep inside
And then I'm free again to leave the pain behind
Right here in my hand - feelings I can't hide
Someday I'm gone away with nothing but my pride
Somedays I wish to run away
Fall in the world and stray,
My life is turning, turning But when there's nowhere else to go
Pray to the Lord, my soul,
My heart is burning, it's burning You forgive yourself
When you know that you're someone else...
Someday I'll understand my dreams so deep inside
And then I'm free again to leave the pain behind
Right here in my hand - feelings I can't hide
Someday I'm gone away with nothing but my pride
