

Just Because

Nikka Costa

I take you in
And I hold my breath
And try to save the time that's passing by
And if it came to say goodbye
A thousand summers could never dry
Every tear that touched my face
And they don't laugh the way you do
And they don't smile the way you do
And their eyes don't shine the way yours do
I love you
Just because
Without the words to fall back on
I'm afraid it's hopeless to describe
And if I tried
I'd probably steer you wrong
A thousand phrases could never say
How I feel today
And they don't laugh the way you do
And they don't smile the way you do
And their eyes don't shine the way yours do
I love you
Just because
