

So Good Afternoon

Caroline's Spine

I think i'll try my luck and flo and normandie and have some dude beat the living shit
out of me,
well he haunts me; he taunted me and i just found out that hes been set free.

So i'll go and tell my girlfriend i think shes ugly.
weve had a few kids and shes getting kinda pudgy.
ill tease her, please her, and then i'm gonna leave her
and i'll go and find me a new girl until she bugs me.

Chorus:

because they know i want you,
know i need you,
know i wont go a day w/o you and only you can know what you'r doing to me

I think i'll go and take my snake down for animal testing where they lay me down and injecting me while i'm resting.
they starve me, carve me, stitch me up,
they scar me up
and when i wake up w/ cancer, they give me their blessing.

Chorus

You and i, we shine and i feel you coming down my way
...so good afternoon.

I like to get laid so i became a musician, and im an expert in humanity by my own admission.

im kind, i'm signed, im a legend in my own mind

and i'll tell you im god herself if you promise to listen
...you promised
