

The Falling

Eli Young Band

I'm a runner that's what I do don't be surprised when I run from you when you turn around I'll be gone. I won't leave cuz of something ya said nobody will know which way that I Went Beat ya to the door before you get the chance It ain't the falling in love I'm scared of it ain't the moonlight shining in Your eyes it aint the falling baby cuz the fallin I've always liked I'm good at being lonely lonely's all I got
It ain't the fallin in love that'll kill me, it's the sudden stop Love me now we can't wast time I'm not the kind who likes to stay all night Once the sun comes up there's to much at stake Never wanted a one night stand but a broken heart can really change a man You're the kind of girl who can really hurt me bad. It ain't the falling in love I'm scared of it ain't the moonlight shining in your eyes it ain't the falling baby cuz the fallin I've always liked I'm good at being lonely lonely's all I got
It ain't the fallin in love that'll kill me, it's the sudden stop I can't afford to fall again, cuz if you leave yea you know nobody wins. It ain't the falling in love I'm scared of it ain't the moonlight shining in your eyes it aint the falling baby cuz the fallin I've always liked I'm good at being lonely lonely's all I got
It ain't the fallin in love that'll kill me, it's the sudden stop Falling
